PERSONALS

Miss Mary Burns of Saybrook called on friends in Norwich Tuesday.

Olin Miller of Jewett City called on relatives in Noank early in the week.

Herbert S. Staplin of Montville has been in Stonington for a brief visit with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. MacDougall of Perkins avenue have returned from a visit to Montreal, Canada.

Mrs. D. Connell and her daughter, Anna Mae, of North Main street are visiting friends in New York.

Daniel Starr of Norwich has returned after spending the week end at the home of his mother, Mrs. Beattie M. Starr, at East Hampton.

John L. Walsh of 10 Cliff street left Monday for Indianapolis, Ind., where he is to be assistant manager for a Hartford Insurance company.

Word was received in New London on Tuesday of the sudden death in Daytona, Fla., at 4:15 Tuesday morning of Mrs. Orrin A. Buzzell of Flanders, mother of Leon Buzzell, president of the L. C. Buzzell & Co., of New London. Particulars regarding her death will be given later.

Mr. and Mrs. Buzzell left on a trip south two weeks ago last Sunday and expected to winter at Daytona, Fla. They were, however, guests of Mrs. J. W. Holmes, an intimate friend, at the time of Mrs. Buzzell's death.

Mrs. Buzzell was formerly Miss Grace Campbell, the daughter of a local woolen manufacturer of Maine. She was married here and has lived in this city ever since. Mrs. Buzzell was a woman of sterling and steadfast character, well liked by every one who knew her.

She is survived by her husband, a son, Samuel, and four daughters, Mrs. L. S. Kinsman of New Haven, Mrs. Ida and Miss Rae Selsberg who live at home. She also leaves four brothers, William, Milton, David and John, all of New Haven.

Abraham Bennett of Newark, N. J., and two sisters, Mrs. Max Goldstein of Norwich and Mrs. Charles S. Weiss of Portsmouth, N. H., were also present.

Before Mrs. Selsberg's death and all the family were at her bedside when she passed away.

Edwin Bentley Bassett.

Edwin Bentley Bassett, a native of Norwich and for many years a resident of this city, died Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in Cambridge, Mass., at the home of his son where he went to live last July. Mr. Bassett was 71 years of age and had lived in Cambridge for many years.

Mr. Bassett was born in Preston on March 27, 1842 and his early education was received in the schools of this city. For many years he was a painter. He was a veteran of the Spanish American war and the undefeated tubercle champion of New England, having been once defeated by Dr. J. B. Endicott.

Mr. Bassett leaves five sons, Frank of Portland, Me., Arthur of Westbury, Eugene of Bridgeport, Fred of Panama, N. Y., and John of Cambridge, Mass.

He was a member of the Shennecossett Country club of Groton and was an expert golf player, having won prizes in tournaments at Groton and New Haven, Bermuda and other places.

Miss Bromley was a voter in the town of Groton and would have cast a ballot in the recent election had she not been taken ill just before the event. She was unable to go to the polls, and her inability to vote was a source of great regret to her.

Resides her parents, Miss Bromley leaves a sister, Mrs. Douglas C. Arnold of Westfield, N. J., and a brother, Isaac H. Bromley, of Groton.
